1.02 Code of Conduct

Policy

In order that AACVPR may better achieve its purposes, the following Code of Conduct is adopted and shall govern the conduct of all members, member representatives, conference attendees and staff.

Procedure

All members, member representatives and attendees in connection with all AACVPR matters and activities shall:

1. Conduct themselves and their activities in a professional manner marked by integrity and a spirit of fair play.

2. Refrain from engaging in any activity which would violate confidentiality commitments and/or proprietary rights of the Association.

3. Abide by the Bylaws and policies of AACVPR.

4. Not engage in sales activity, including direct or indirect solicitation, or conduct any other activity contrary to the purposes or policies of AACVPR.

5. Not distribute any materials or post displays of any kind at AACVPR activities without prior approval.

6. Not engage in any form of personnel recruiting at, or using, AACVPR facilities or resources unless through prior approval of the Board of Directors.

7. Not use the AACVPR name/Logo other than in the conduct of AACVPR business as determined by the Board of Directors.

8. Not use the AACVPR membership or conference attendee lists or any part thereof except in the conduct of business as determined by the Board of Directors.

9. Restrict the use of AACVPR confidential documents and other information presented to the AACVPR Board of Directors for purposes defined in the Bylaws and/or as authorized by the AACVPR Board of Directors or AACVPR policies.

10. Conduct themselves in a manner that is consistent with, and not disruptive to, the business and social activities sponsored by AACVPR.
